The incident will delight every unreconstructed Confederate heart to the utmost. Dr. J. William Jones, now in the city, will not approve of the "old rebel's" language, probably, but will be charmed with what the old soldier did. So will hundreds of others.

The story was sent to Mr. Frank P. Brent, of this city, by the suthor, who was an eye witness, and who is a member of the House of D. legates from the Eastern Shore.

Eastern Shore.

Here it is:
Coming up on the train Friday night (June 28) from the southern part of the penisular, I was both amused and delighted at the outcome of a fight on the train that particular evening between fifteen or more Yankee soldiers and one ione Confederate. The name of the Confederate (who told me he was with Gen.
R. E. Lee) I could not learn, though I would like very much to know, so that I might write him, etc. The gentleman in question, though not by any means in question, though not by any means intoxicated, I think had taken a few drops, just sufficient to make him lively and talkative. He was a man over 6 feet, well built, and weighed, I presume remarked so every one could hear:

"Well, where in the h-l are all these d-d old Yanks going?" "This remark caused one of the old soldiers to rise up in his seat and ask who it was that used the expression. The Reb. in turn rose up in his seat and but owing to the great number crowding him between the car seats, the 'Reb.' fell. Then they all jumped on him. Fearing he would be killed, I ran to his assistance, and calling the conductor, we soon succeeded in gesting a sufficient number away to allow the Reb. to rise, and when he did so he made a rush, and it was could have seen those Vanks and when he did so he made a rush, and if you could have seen those Yanks run for their seats and get out of that fellow's way, you, too, like myself, would have been tickled to death. I out, and were going to cut him. But be did not remain seated long. When be again resumed his walk up and down the aisle, cursing those Yanks, slight scratch, while there were a doz m or more Yanks all bruised up, and looked like as if they had ju t come out of seven-days fight. It was really the most amueing thing I have seen for a long time, and did me more good than mere desire. There are a great many people who think it is as useless to hope for health as to cry for the moon. They have tried many medicines and many doctors, but all in vain.

A powerful engine can't be run with a weak boiler; and you can't expect to keep up the wear and strain of an active life with a weak stomach. Our boilers, or rather our stomachs, can't be replaced, and we cannot stop the human machinery while making repairs. But when the stomach is unable to digest enough food to keep the body strong, we can use such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat, so that you can eat all the good food you want, without any distress after eating. "After forty years of suffering from indigestion, a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cured me."—Amai Bell, Fredonia, Pa.

A great many hopeless men and women have been cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery; people with obstinate coughs, bleeding lungs, night-sweats and other symptoms of disease which if neglected or wnskillfully treated find a fatal termination in consumption.

"Golden Medical Discovery" has a wonderful healing power. It increases the nutrition of the body, and so gives strength to throw off disease. It cleanses the blood from poisonous impurities and enriches it with the red corpuscles of health. It is not a stimulant, but a strength giving medicine. It contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine, nor any other narcotic.

inie. It contains no alcohol, neither opium, ocaine, nor any other narcotie.

Sometimes the extra profit paid by nforior medicines tempts the dealer to offer a substitute as "just as good" as "Discovery." If you are convinced that "Discovery" will cure you accept nothing else. "I was in poor health when I commenced aking Dr. Pierce's medicine, "writes Mr. Elmer cawler, of Volga, Jefferson Co., Indiana. "I and stomach, kidney, heart, and lung trouble, was not able to do any work. I had a severe cough and hemorrhage of the lungs, but after sing your medicine a while I commenced to pain in strength and flesh, and stopped coughing right away. Took about six bottles of the Golden Medical Discovery' then, and last spring I had Grippe, and it settled on my lungs, eaving me with a severe cough.
